PEN POWER WORKS – COME AND JOIN US

Old-fashioned handwriting is still alive, well and working on behalf of prisoners of conscience. Some 30 years on, our small group of letter writers continues to meet, discuss and write in defence of individuals and communities, harassed, jailed and sometimes facing execution.

Our base is Cloisters, the cathedral café, every month on a Thursday or Friday afternoon. Each of us pens, (to a suggested format), three or four letters and puts a 'fiver' in the postal pot. Just knowing they are not forgotten gives the persecuted a huge boost and enough of them on release say..

"Thank you 'Amnesty International'" to justify our hopeful commitment.

There are also openings for campaigning online.

Easyfundraising

Christ Church Chichester is now registered with Easyfundraising.

This website can be used whenever you go to spend money online. Look out for information in church at the weekend.

If you yourself don't do any online shopping - then your families certainly will! - there are more than 8,000 retailers registered, and ordering from any one of them through this website will result in Christ Church financially benefiting.

Log on to the Easyfundraising website to register www.easyfundraising.org.uk and pick us as your chosen charity!

Harvest Festival

Thank you to you all for your donations;
the food was shared between our local Food Bank and 'Heart'.
The financial donations, which have also been split, totalled £252.51
